

MICHIGAN CENTER FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

An Initiative of the Michigan Community College Association

Michigan Guided Pathways Institute + MSSN Meeting “Serving Underprepared Learners in a Guided Pathways Context” April 21-22, 2016

Thursday 4/21 GPI Cohort I and II Colleges Day 1

10:30-11:00	Check in
11:00-11:45	Welcome and Framing the Day Jenny Schanker, Michigan Center for Student Success Rob Johnstone, National Center for Inquiry & Improvement	Lobby
11:45-12:15	Brief Introductions of Discussion Leaders	Lobby
12:15-12:45	Networking Lunch	Lobby
1:00-2:00	Breakout Discussions with Expert Practitioners
	1. Accelerated Mathematics, Sarah Roberts, Nashville State College	101
	2. Accelerated English Composition, Patricia Armstrong, Nashville State College	103
	3. Assessment and Placement, Susan Barbitta, Guilford Technical Community College	105
	4. Integrated Reading and Writing, Cheryl Garayta & Megan Lin, Lansing Community College	121
	5. Using Data in Pathway Design, Nathan Venske, Jackson College	123
	6. Non-Traditional Financial Supports, Jill Thomas-Little, Macomb Community College	150
2:00-2:15	Break	Lobby
2:15-3:15	Repeat Breakout Discussions (same as above)
3:15-4:15	Cohort I and II Cross College Conversations
	1. Macomb/Oakland/Delta/Washtenaw	101
	2. Lansing/Grand Rapids/Mott/Schoolcraft	103
	3. Mid/Glen Oaks/West Shore/Bay/North Central	105
	4. Muskegon/Kalamazoo Valley/Northwestern	121
	5. Jackson/Kellogg /Lake Michigan	123
	6. Henry Ford/Saint Clair/Monroe	150
4:15-4:30	Wrap Up and Overview of Friday	Lobby

Friday 4/22 GPI Cohort I and II Colleges Day 2 + Michigan Student Success Network

8:00-8:45	Continental Breakfast	Lobby
8:45-10:00	Welcome and Announcements Erica Orians, Michigan Center for Student Success	101/103/123
	Keynote Address: A Cautionary Tale How a college, with the best of intentions, took ten years to scale up a highly successful redesigned developmental program . . . and what that delay cost our students. Peter Adams, Professor Emeritus, Community College of Baltimore County
10:00-11:30	Developmental Education Reform in North Carolina and Tennessee North Carolina – How grassroots efforts combined with state policy to accelerate students into their program of study. Susan Barbitta, Guilford Technical Community College	101/103/123
	Nashville State —When redesigning the approach to learning support in math, reading, and writing, faculty focused on what would aid our students in a holistic fashion. Hear about our unique co-requisite models in math and reading and how we addressed administrative “problems” in the design process before discussing how things are going so far. Patricia Armstrong and Sarah Roberts, Nashville State College
11:30-11:45	Break	Lobby
11:45-12:30	MCO Guided Digital Pathways Tool Lake Michigan College will share their experience with the MCO Digital Pathways planning and advising solution and explain how it can integrate with your existing system. Ronda Edwards, Michigan Colleges Online Angela Marsh-Peek and Randall Melton, Lake Michigan College	101/103/123
12:30 1:15	Networking Lunch	Lobby
1:15-2:00	Exploratory Pathway Maps and Programs Maps Debunked Jackson College is creating individualized student plans from orientation to completion. Nathan Venske, Jackson College	101/103/123
2:00-3:00	MCSS Updates Erica Orians and Jenny Schanker, Michigan Center for Student Success	101/103/123