PROJECT UPDATE & CLOSE

Each team will have five minutes to present (informally) the focus of their research, and they'll receive guidance on what to expect for the project presentation in the final live session.

Intersession #2 (4 months)

During the intersession experience, the teams will continue to work on their special projects. The final presentations of the research/findings/recommendations will take place in May at Session 3 in Lansing. There will also be additional intersession webinars during this time period:

- Friday, March 9th from 1:00 – 2:00 (Women & Leadership Session)

Striking Work-Life Harmony

*This webinar will also include an individual assessment for MCCA members who are curious about their relationship with work, as well as how they manage their work/life boundaries.

- Friday, April 13th from 1:00 – 2:00 AM (Negotiations)

*This webinar will help individuals understand a framework for negotiations – whether that's negotiating for a new opportunity, or working with a colleague to get to a positive result.
