

Growing Faculty Connections Roundtable

Creating Connected Communities

November 2, 2020

12-1 p.m.

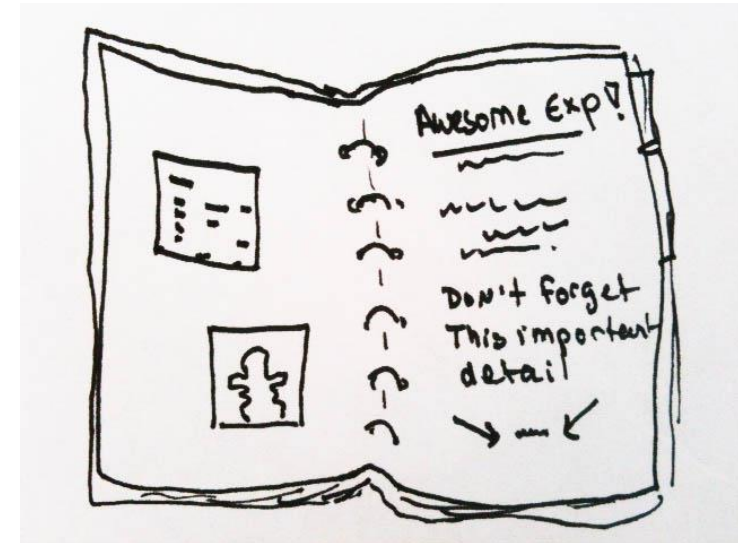

Facilitators

- Jenny Schanker, Director of Research and Institutional Practice, Michigan Center for Student Success
- Katie Giardello, Manager of Network Engagement, Michigan Center for Student Success
- Erica Orians, Executive Director, Michigan Center for Student Success

Goals for Today

- Share ideas and resources across disciplines for creating connected classroom communities in virtual and socially distanced environments
- Embrace the equity challenge posed by the COVID-19 pandemic
- Create a connected community of faculty leaders across Michigan who support and challenge one another

Growing a Culture of Faculty Engagement in Michigan

The brief describes the evolution and latest learnings from Michigan's faculty engagement efforts and foregrounds the insights of faculty from Michigan's community colleges who have participated in MCSS events and roundtables.

Today's Inspiration

“School is a respite from students' complicated lives of essential work and at-home caregiving. My students were so glad to have some sort of ‘regular’ contact and social engagement, even virtual.”
