The states in the map represent the states in which bachelor's degrees were awarded. In this analysis, baccalaureate-granting institutions that predominantly award associate degrees (at least 55 percent of the undergraduate degrees awarded are associate degrees) are classified as two-year institutions. As such, enrollments at these institutions count.

Special Projects in Partnership with the State

ADN → BSN Completion Program $56M

- The collaborative plan, approved by the Legislature and signed into law by Gov. Gretchen Whitmer in 2022, will support the development of programs for nurses with associate degrees to complete their bachelor of science in nursing (BSN) on community college campuses. Under the legislation, community colleges can partner with a four-year college or university and design a BSN completion program with input from local employers and workforce development agencies. Each community college will be eligible for a $2 million grant for administering the program.

Academic Catchup Program $10M

- The FY2023 budget allocated $10 million for the Academic Catch-Up Program. The program, administered by the Michigan Community College Association, will support community colleges’ efforts to combat learning loss among recent high school graduates who experienced interruptions to in-person learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Each college will offer a summer educational program that is focused on English and mathematics, and provide transportation, supplies, and individualized support services.

Corrections Officer Grant Program $5M

- The Michigan Department of Corrections (MDOC) requires that corrections officers earn 15 college credits within 24 months of employment. The Michigan Corrections Officer Grant Program established a fund to be administered by the Michigan Community College Association (MCCA) to support tuition and fees for corrections officers enrolled at a Michigan community college.
Michigan New Jobs Training Program

How the Michigan New Jobs Training Program Works

If a business is locating a facility or expanding operations in the state, the Michigan New Jobs Training Program can provide flexible funding to meet a variety of training and employee development needs for those new positions.

Funds to cover the costs of training are attained through a diversion of withholding taxes generated by the wages earned by the new employees to the community college providing the training. In other words, training of new employees is essentially paid by dollars that would otherwise have been paid to the state for withholding taxes – no new additional dollars are expended to cover the costs of training. Businesses can gain a competitive edge through virtually cost-free training of their new employees.

How to Get Started?
To begin the process, eligible employers should contact their local community college to explore training needs. Main contacts for the 28 community colleges are available online at www.mcca.org.
