Program Details

Initial Reading Assessment:

Certified teachers administer a diagnostic assessment, the Woodcock Reading Mastery Test III Edition by Pearson (WRMT-III), to participating students. The certified teacher assesses word identification, word attack, word comprehension, passage comprehension, and fluency. The assessment results are then reviewed by reading specialists who prescribe a personalized literacy plan for each student.

Personalized Literacy Plan:

Certified and trained tutors work one-on-one with students for one hour a day based on their personalized literacy plan, four to five days a week during the summer. These tutors follow the Orton-Gillingham methodology, which emphasizes multi-sensory instruction.

Literacy Curriculum:

- Segment B (Read to Rise Tattum Reading System): Provides one-on-one, intense tutoring services with a focus on decoding, vocabulary building, fluency, and comprehension.

- Segment C (Read to Rise Scholars Program): Enhances oral reading fluency, vocabulary, fluency, comprehension, and writing skills.

Post-Instruction Reading Assessment:

Certified teachers administer a post-prescription diagnostic assessment, the WRMT-III by Pearson, to participating students. This assessment gauges student improvement and program efficacy by assessing word identification, word attack, word comprehension, passage comprehension, and fluency.
