MCSS Birds of a Feather Twitter Engagement

We want to connect with “birds of a feather” including equity-minded staff and faculty to take the lead in sharing research, ideas, and momentum to keep improving #mistudentsuccess at @MiColleges.

To join, follow us on twitter @mccacss and use our hashtag #mistudentsuccess to keep the conversation going!

You can also use #mifacultylead, #mirightmath, #mibestcc, #mitransfer, #miguidedpathways, #mistart2finish to track activity in our initiatives.
MCSS Initiatives and Resources

MCSS hopes to deepen our connections with the #mistudentsuccess network across the state through our “Birds of a Feather” Twitter engagement efforts. We invite all faculty, staff, and administrators working for #mistudentsuccess to follow us on Twitter @MCCACSS and join us in tweeting about your student success efforts using the following hashtags as appropriate to the content: #mistudentsuccess, #mifacultylead, #miguidedpathways, #mitransferpathways, #mitrighthmath, #mibestcc and event-specific hashtags as announced. The videos here share details about our Twitter engagement efforts and offer a crash course in using Twitter for those who may be less familiar.

The Joyful Conspiracy: Ensuring all students benefit from relevant, rigorous mathematics pathways.

Mathematics should...

Prepare students for the future.

Enable students to meet their educational goals.

Support and empower students as learners.
